

Sewerperson - Curtain_caller

Its been 7 months

Can we speak

Im not hurt

I just need closure

Im happy u had come to my concert

Breakaway from the

Predetermined life

Im ok I just can't seem to get sleep at night

U could see it in the photos

From the tour posts

I was dealing with addiction in like most of those

I put time into our partnership for bullet holes

I drive home on summer nights and play our videos

I play playlists u had made and then forgot about

No one else is in my brain when I lay sleep at home

This path break I could see in the trees

Tells me I am not the only one inside this forest held dream

Plenty people in their sleep come here more often than me

In relation to our heartache u had never met me

These blue pills inside my drink had changed me

Its not often I talk problems this deep

Maybe its time to start

All these drugs cause palpitations inside my rib cage

She told me people never change and im the perfect case

Breakaway from the

Predetermined life

Im ok I just can't seem to get sleep at night

U could see it in the photos

From the tour posts
