

Whitney Bjerken - PSYCHO

I should, I should have known
That I'd always feel alone
You tore me down to the bone
But I don't run
I've had enough of you

But I'll never say we're through
Cause' you said you changed
And I believed that was true

You got me going psycho
Second guessing myself
Holding my tongue back with my teeth
Like I'm stuck in a spell
But I can't step back and watch you go
Destroy another girl you know
Trapped in the walls of love and hate
Cause' boy you make me psycho
One time, two times, then three
You've stolen the best of me
Over again repeated
I'm so tired
I never ever know
If you want to stay or go
You've twisted my mind into
A never ending loophole

You got me going psycho
Second guessing myself
Holding my tongue back with my teeth
Like I'm stuck in a spell

But I can't step back and watch you go
Destroy another girl you know
Trapped in the walls of love and hate
Cause' boy you make me psycho

Light up the fire and watch it burning down my heart
Why's it so hard for me to part
I can't let go, takes control, boy you make me psycho
Cross my fingers, tell a lie, every time

Psycho, second guessing myself
Holding my tongue back with my teeth
Like I'm stuck in a spell
But I can't step back and watch you go
Destroy another girl you know
Trapped in the walls of love and hate
Cause' boy you make me psycho
Cause' boy you make me psycho
Cause' boy you make me psycho
