

dylAn - Moon In My Room

{Intro: Willow Smith}

This isâ€”this is my dream for you

{Verse 1: dylAn}

Welcome to the fourth dimension

Where everything you accept

Is a reflection on perception and perspective

Frequency is less aggressive

Too much love in the air, no room for tension

Love is the center of attention

Resurrection...

{Interlude : Marv from the Sin City film}

The night is hot as hell

It's a lousy room and a lousy part of a lousy town

I'm staring at a goddess

She's telling me she wants me, I'm not going to waste one more second wonder ring how I've gotten so lucky

(I want you)

{Verse 2: dylAn}

Baby, we are all connected

Don't you see, it's the flower

That's the pendant that is hanging from a necklace

Together we can self-heal through transcendence

(The perfect woman)

Self-heal through transcendence

{Verse 3: dylAn}

The sun is down, and the moon is full now

I guess I'll grab my friends

And just go to my room now

Sit in my doom now

Wish I could fly away, I guess I'll go and get a broom now

Don't have a clue now, but I will get blue now

We can sit in my treehouseâ€™treehouse

{Verse 4: dylAn}

Not a soul knows about time and its difference

For I am a witness to the shift that I sifted

Nonetheless, what I feel when in it with you is intrinsic

The aura from the light given matches your lipstick

So if we rise to a high state rapidly, don't act frantically

Love happens organicallyâ€™organically

{Outro: Willow Smith}

You can make a bow from home tree

You have earned a warrior, let's see

After my youth, I become Tsahik

Let's see if you can handle me

Put your hands in the water

Feel the vibe, put your ears to the tree trunk

Hear the night sky
