

Bing Crosby - Day By Day

Day by day, i wake up for you, i do
And i rise to who knows who
Well if i can say, some other day

Day by day, i reach out to you i do
And i pretend, there's something to it
And if i can say, i've had better days

Day by day, i resort to you, i do
And i wash up after you're through
If i can say, that's okay
You're in my head again
You're in my bed again
You're in my mirror again

And if you don't mind me
I don't mind you

Day by day, i reflect on you, i do
I reflect on you, i do
