The Burns Sisters - Into The Wild

I've given up and given in
I don't know where to start or where to begin
I'm looking for diamonds in a house of cards
One eyed memories, two sided hearts

Show me your hand Keep your aces up high Bring me the wind I'm ready to fly

Into the wild with you
Out on the land we two
We're gonna run
And laugh away the sorrow
We'll sleep by the rivers of time
You ease my mind
We've got today
We won't think about tomorrow
Into the wild with you
You found the ways of the earth and sky
You were born to believe, born to be wild
We were looking for clues on the road to truth
When I lost something
Why was it you

Maybe I'm changing
We don't need to take sides
You can come for me now
I'm ready to fly

Into the wild with you

Out on the land we two
We're gonna run
And laugh away the sorrow
We'll sleep by the rivers of time
You ease my mind
We've got today
We won't think about tomorrow
Into the wild with you
Into the wild

Into the wild with you (etc.)
