

FalcoSoFly - They Don't Understand Us

[chorus:falcosofly]

It's okay,it's okay

They don't understand us

You was folding like some paper

We was running money up

They want me to drop da wrld but i don't give a fuck

I'mma just do what i want,no need to give that up

Fans could change your life in a minute

Then one night you waking up and you making music

That you ain't wanna make

You ain't gon make it if there's no risks you're willing to take

I put blades on my choppa,they can finally go skate

Yuh

[verse 1:falcosofly]

I'm geeking off an x and off a perky

I like when that bitch twerkey

Whole gang gon eat like thanksgiving and turkey

I feel like ye,they ain't giving us mercy

I see them opps,they be lurkin

We do freaky shit under close curtains

What you want? a new birkin?

And i thought this bitch was still a virgin

Not until you planted the seed in me

Yuh

They don't believe in me

God did

This is the vision,these are god's kids

I got some goth kicks

Yuh

She freaky,she lick dick

Walkin round wit a big stick

Every time i drop it feels like christmas

Yuh

[chorus:falcosofly]

It's okay,it's okay

They don't understand us

You was folding like some paper

We was running money up

They want me to drop da wrld but i don't give a fuck

I'mma just do what i want,no need to give that up

Fans could change your life in a minute

Then one night you waking up and you making music

That you ain't wanna make

You ain't gon make it if there's no risks you're willing to take

I put blades on my choppa,they can finally go skate

Yuh

[verse 2:falcosofly]

You keep tryna cuff me but you ain't the police

That's right,i hate them though

Get to the guap,feel like mario

I'm off x and o's

Feeling like i'm playing tic tac toe

With your hoe

I just cuffed her

And i don't love her

Just keeping her around

Might just fuck your mother

You really sending shots at my brother?

Get high as the moon,kid cudder

And i use no rubber

That's a lie

Occasionally

You do that caucasian lee

I can fight just like bruce lee
Damn my neck so icy
I know your bitch really don't like me
