

Bing Crosby - 'Tain't So, Honey, 'Tain't So

Hey, people, you should come to Arkansas
Meet a friend of mine, old Aunt Phoebe Law
She's known to everyone for miles around
She will help you when friends forsake you and troubles bear you down!
For those who come her way
Are blessed when they hear her say:

'Tain't so, honey, 'tain't so
Spoke to the Lord and the Lord said no
'Tain't so
Honey, 'tain't so
'Tain't so, honey, 'tain't so
Tomorrow will bring something good, I know
'Tain't so
I mean, it just ain't so

Makes no difference what your problem may be Just look up, brother, and I'm sure you'll agree

The Devil said yes, but the Lord said no
'Tain't so
Honey, 'tain't so
