

Switchblade Kittens - Time

I think I've earned the fight, to turn back time
I want to take it all back, and make it right
My actions come undone, to save two lives
All the books in my mind, merge in one night

Chorus:

Time is the healer of all wounds
Time is turning back and leaving
Time is running out too soon
And if time could talk would it be screaming

Verse:

I think I've learned the wise, of hindsight
My bravery has come back, future rewrite
You escaped the pain, to take flight
All the looks in your eyes, scream I won't die

Bridge:

Complicated an arithmancy equation
Time, Space, Motion, it's an illusion
Past feelings on the back burner
Pray, Wish, Hope a Time Turner
