

Poi Dog Pondering - Lackluster

{Chorus}

Hey! Hey! Hey!

Slippy slide, side-side-side, go to go

{Verse 1}

A long time gone and a long time past

So soon so soon

Lackluster, lackluster, how can I muster

The faith that I need to see the things I need to see

On again, off again, bronco, try to hold onto

The ribs of the situation at hand

{Pre-Chorus}

A long time gone and a long time past

Since I felt that things were within my grasp

Wheel roll round, round, round, round

Hear that sound

{Chorus}

Hey! Hey! Hey!

Slippy slide, side-side-side, go to go

{Verse 2}

Leaning longingly against the window

Falling forlorn to the ground, ground, ground

When I wonder, when I whistle

When I'm wandering through the thistles

When I'm tangled up in bristles

Hey! Hey! Hey! Hey!

{Pre-Chorus}

Beautifully pained like an angel in purgatory

Wrapped up and exalted, immaculate in melancholy
She sure (sea shore) rose and the sand fell through her hands
Grain after grain after grain

{Chorus}

Hey! Hey! Hey!

Slippy slide, side-side-side, go to go

{Verse 3}

"In the beginning was the myth"

Chapter one starts like this

"Blank and calm, and full of expectancy"

I'm standing exactly where I'm supposed to be

I'm standing exactly where I'm supposed to be

{Chorus}

Hey! Hey! Hey!

Slippy slide, side-side-side, go to go

{Post-Chorus}

Go, go, go, go, go, go, go

Twisting and tumbling

Not stumbling or fumbling
