

Adamariz - TRUTH REMIX

{Intro: adamariz}

This the remix

Ay

Ay

Ay

Yeah

Yeah

Yeah, lemme tell y'all something about the truth

Let's get it

Yeah

Ay

Ay

Ay

{Verse 1: adamariz}

Your word is proof that you are the truth

Tried to inform the youth

But they was on a another tune

Smoking the devils lettuce mixing it with purple juice

Random fruits and sprite too

They leaning towards everything that goes against You

Tried to get me on that road

All my friends and all my foes

Tried to say a fairy tale was told

But want me to sell my soul

I did some planting, got back ten fold

Cause Imma reap what i sow

This is what I chose

The truth over acting woke

The truth over lies they spoke

The truth over gossip they wrote

Cause you talked down on a child of the almighty

{Verse 2: Parris Chariz}

Look, tried to talk down on a child of the most high
Ended where they fly with the clouds
Please do a search inside yourself before you drown
Deep conversations, turn the wave by the pound
The weight of every burden getting lifted
Balancing the scales of my emotions when I listen
All your filled with yourself and not the spirit
But they wanted me to fear 'em
Never think that it ain't levels cause were pyramids
I talked to God about the devil in my ear
Then I let Him take the wheel
I'm on the road to getting healed
If it ain't real then I choose not hear it
And the P stands for period

{Verse 3: Battz}

Ok, look
If you really got a problem
Just look in the mirror
I start working on myself and now my vision is clearer
It was near sided
I've been fighting
I decided
I provided
Y'all be lying about how y'all really feel
Word to my mother and all the others
That was never suckers
And lovers of they self
And push the kid to build the wealth
I should've been dead along time ago

Then God came in and showed me how I've grown

Every move is calculated

Every move is pivotal

Don't follow the world

I abide by the biblical

The fact that I'm alive today

I swear man

It's a miracle

Started from the bottom

Now we climbing to the pinnacle

Man, this ain't hat lyrical

It's that spiritual

There ain't no demons in my vehicles

Yeah, we kings were imperial

Yeah, we kings were imperial

Yeah
