

Christian Kjellvander - Reverse Traverse Blues

A strangers hand wraps a shawl
Straightens a skirt and then lays calm
"â€!and I know you're rolling with me"!
Along, among and where eyes breathe

Which ever road I choose
I journey with those reverse traverse blues

Oh to leave the life you're in My solace rebelled by the been
This ain't the time nor the place
To set these buried things ablaze
Which ever road I choose
I leave it with those reverse traverse blues
