

CAIRO! - Angels and Rage

I count the reasons for the darkness
There lies a balance in dichotomy
The dead of night scares me
Yet the sun shocks the senses
Tossing me back and forth
I see the glimmer of the lining
Now it rains, soon it rains no more
Scorched by the heat, burning
The icy sting, numb and frozen
Angels and rage ...
Divergent thoughts collide in virtual silence

(Go ...) Face to face
(The two sides alone)
Which way should I go?

And now the angels
Weep the tears of rage
Again frustrated
... The clash of human ways
Angels and rage

The morning sun creeps in the shadows
One word of truth negates hypocrisy
To realize nothing
Caught between the seconds
Chasing me back and forth
Already, outcome is decided
Nothing new under the sun, they say
At every turn fate might
Try to stop me

Dragging me down

Opposing views defy all trace of reason

(Go ...) Face to face

(The two sides alone)

Leave me alone

And now the angels

Weep the tears of rage

Again frustrated

... The clash of human ways

Angels and rage

Sudden change, disturbing pattern

Defying all I ever thought was real

Feeling pulled by this

Senseless anger

But I will remain ... I remain

Out of breath, slipping backwards

The paradigm inverts before my eyes

At last I see clearly

All before me

Angels and rage

Divergent thoughts collide

They scream in silence and curse the night

(Go ...) Face to face

(The two sides alone)

Where did you do?

(Which way should I go?)

And now the angels

Weep the tears of rage

Again frustrated

... The clash of human ways

Angels and rage

And now the angels

Weep the tears of rage

Love or conquest

Where do we set the stakes?

Angels and rage

Angels and rage
