

Kon Kan - Time

Time has never been on our side
Everybody's workin' for their future
They never notice it goin' by
But my time, it's always better with you
You're the only one I've ever met
The one to share this point of view

(Everyday) I'll always take things in my stride
(Everyday) I'll never let my feelings hide
We're here today, gone tomorrow
Time is spent, not ever borrowed
Pride will come before the last fall
Everybody's dreamin' of possessions
Though very few I know have it all
But my pride wit never be that untrue
You're the only one I've ever met
The one to share this point of view

(Everyday) I'll always take things in my stride
(Everyday) I'll never let my feelings hide
We're here today, gone tomorrow
Time is spent, not ever borrowed
